

I am against any relaxation of media ownership rules. We need to maintain local ownership of the media, and we must have diversity in the news media. Anything else in a participatory democracy is unacceptable.